

Salaam Bharat

We are coming to salute India

Introduction:

Salaam Bharat is a tribute to the nation expressing the faith of the unprivileged who wish to bring an end to their sufferings. It aims at reformation of the society where inequality, suffering and customs are shunned and laws of humanity and fraternity are adopted for sustainable development of all.

It is a non-profit NGO fostering to bridge the gap between the haves and the have nots of the society. It neither embodies our belief that patriotism is neither an asset of the resourceful nor exists in exclusivity; its motto is always noble and lies above materialistic barriers. We are a believer of the cult of dreamers who dare to aspire and know how to fabricate their plans into reality. Although our country is scaling to new heights of globalization but nevertheless the conspicuous void between the unprivileged and the people enjoying the surplus hasn't witnessed any contraction. In addition to the government's initiatives several NGO's and other organizations have taken up to answering to the cries of the society in the past. Much fruitful results have come out of their strenuous efforts but owing to the never ceasing demand of our country the supply is not ample to meet the ends. Consequently we felt that now it's our turn to take the driver's seat and contribute to the cause of Social Upliftment or Social Re-engineering as we term it.

Vision:

“To remove the adversity of every individual by servicing and educating them to build up a self-reliance society based on equality and aware about their rights and duties.”

Thought of President

Lokendra Pal Singh
President, Salaam Bharat

"To serve humanity with my heart and soul till I am alive. Salaam Bharat is a step towards achievement of this vision. Serving people with my deeds is the only motive of my life.

I am here for serving and educating people so as to remove the adversity of every individual."

Thought of General Secretary

Anubhav Srivastava
Gen. Secretary, Salaam Bharat

"Salaam Bharat is the inner consciousness of the society, a feeling of fraternity, which will lead the world to a new era where there will be no boundaries, no differences and no sufferings. Dreams of everyone will come true and humanity will reach to its peak of prosperity.

Salaam Bharat is a platform to salute India by bringing a reformation in the system and society. Salaam Bharat is not rigidly bound with some fields to work. It is committed to work in each and every domain by active contribution of all. That's why it is not merely an organization. It is the organization of organizations."
